About Orientation
Dear New Norse,
Welcome home! On behalf of Luther College, we are so glad you are here! As you begin a new life chapter of your journey we would like to remind you that you are uniquely YOU (and that’s a beautiful thing)! We humbly request instead of comparing yourselves to your peers, you appreciate your own gifts, talents, strengths, and stories that you bring to the Luther community. We encourage you to learn and appreciate difference from your classmates, staff and faculty. We challenge you to engage in resources that can help support you at Luther while navigating personal freedom and personal responsibility. We hope you pursue your passions as you dedicate yourself to learning. And we pray goodness and blessing upon you during this transition period and your tenure at Luther College.

Welcome home,
—Your Orientation Staff

Appendix II—Music Information

Voice lesson auditions/interviews
All new students taking voice lessons must sign up at Jenson-Noble Hall of Music 123. Sign up for an audition/interview time as soon as possible after arrival on campus; appointments are Saturday, August 25, at 9 a.m. and run through Tuesday, August 28. All new voice students at Luther must have a brief voice audition/interview—it is required, whether or not you have a voice scholarship. The purpose of this audition/interview is to place you in a studio and to give you guidance in your vocal study. You should have a prepared selection for the audition. An accompanist will be provided; bring a copy of your selection to the audition.

Choir auditions—general information
The selection for choir auditions is the hymn “My God, How Wonderful Thou Art,” Evangelical Lutheran Worship Book #863. A pdf file of the hymn is available online at luther.edu/music/auditions/ensembleauditions. Scores will be available at the audition; it is not necessary to obtain one beforehand.

Be certain you check the exact time for choir auditions listed. If you are planning to audition for the first-year SSAA choir (Aurora) or the first-year TTBB choir (Norsemen), keep the following times free on your class schedule: MWF 1:30–2:30 p.m. Some sopranos/altos may be invited to audition for Cantorei, which rehearses Monday, 4:00–5:00 p.m., and Tuesday and Thursday, 4:15–5:15 p.m.

Choir auditions will be held on Sunday, August 26, and Monday, August 27, in Jenson-Noble Hall of Music. Please attend the audition date and time for your specific voice part and the first letter of your last name. If you have a conflict during your scheduled time, attend one of the other sessions. Honor Code

PREAMBLE
We, the members of the student body of Luther College, believe that one of the basic functions of an institution dedicated to the Christian faith and engaged in higher education is the development of academic integrity and responsibility. We therefore hereby resolve to uphold individually and collectively the honor of the college by doing all that is within our power to prevent any form of dishonesty in our academic work and our college life.

HONOR CODE
All academic work is based on the understanding that everyone engaged in academic discourse, in research, and in teaching is truthful, diligent, and respectful of the work of others. Without this, no academic community can flourish. Academic integrity is the moral code that builds trust between scholars.

Because of this, students at Luther College first adopted an honor code in 1962 and have affirmed its importance for the academic life at Luther ever since. It is every student’s responsibility to observe the college’s Honor Code by not violating academic integrity, and to protect the Honor Code by reporting any possible cases of violation.
